Dear Parishioners,

I trust you had peace and fun at Christmas with your family and friends.

I join with my fellow priest, Fr John Heinhold, to wish you all a blessed and peaceful New Year 2015.

On behalf of Fr Heinhold and myself, I thank you for your welcome and encouragement throughout the year. We acknowledge your welcome, hospitality and warmth about the parish. These are the things that count and bring joy and ease to daily life. We thank you for your witness to the faith at a time when such witness is not easy.

We thank the many people who help out in Glanmire parish and make it a vibrant place to live and pray. It is good to belong here.

We thank you especially everyone who contributed to our support. That support has been show in many ways. Thank you for your financial support, especially in the Autumn Dues, the Stations, and Christmas Offerings, the mass offerings, the stipends. You have been generous and thoughtful.

It is with sorrow we remember all who died over the past year. All of them are dearly loved and missed. We pray for them and you who grieve their passing. May they rest in peace.

We celebrate the arrival of new people to the parish and trust you'll feel welcome here and in our church. We welcome the babies born into the parish. May the children be blessed and be able to face the world with strength, creativity and imagination.

We trust you will have a successful, healthy and blessed New Year. By the way, Christmas is celebrated in the Church until the second week of January, so, make the most of it!

- John Heinhold
