God's daily coming to us

A woman was hurrying home from work. This was her bingo night. Suddenly she spotted this fellow standing on the edge of the footpath holding aloft a placard which read: "The end of the world is near." She went up to him and said, "You say the end of the world is near." "That's right, missus," he replied. "But are you sure?" "Quite sure, missus." "And you say it's near." "Yes, missus." "How near?" "Oh, very near." "Could you be more precise?" "This very night, Missus." She paused for a moment to reflect on this. Then in a voice full of anxiety, she asked, "Tell me, son. Will it be before or after bingo?"

Today's Gospel reminds us of a "coming" of God which we tend to forget, namely, God's daily coming to us in the ordinary events of our lives. We must learn to recognize and welcome God in these everyday occurrences – happy, encouraging, painful or disappointing – always remembering that God comes without warning. Let us remember that the Lord is present wherever people treat each other with gentleness, generosity, and thoughtfulness. Hence, let us try to bring Jesus to earth, as Blessed Mother Teresa puts it "by doing little things to others around us with great love."

Annual Mass for the dead and bereaved will take place in St Joseph's Church on Tuesday 17th November at 7.30 pm.

SONGS OF FAITH CONCERT 2015

Come and hear our young people from across the diocese sing their songs of faith on Sunday 22nd November at 7:00pm at Our Lady Crowned Church, Mayfield accompanied by musicians from the diocese and from the Dublin Gospel Choir under the musical direction of Ian Callanan. No tickets – all are welcome – donation only.

Console Christmas Celebration of Light

The annual Console Christmas Celebration of Light will take place in the Sacred Heart Church (M.S.C.), Western Road, Cork on Sunday 29th November 2015 at 4.00pm. The Celebration of Light commemorates the lives of loved ones lost through suicide. It is an evening of song, music, poetry and reflection, which includes the lighting of a candle and a minute's silence in the presence of others as a symbol of hope for the love that endures. The celebration also serves to provide support through contact with the extended Console community. Light refreshments will be served after the ceremony.

Please note change of date: Upper Glanmire Community Association AGM, will be held at 8pm, on Monday November 30th, Upper Glanmire Community Centre. All welcome.

TABLE QUIZ: The family of the late Niamh O'Connor will host a Table Quiz in aid of the RNLI on Monday 23rd November in Sarsfields Pavilion at 8.30 pm. €20 per table of 4.
