Christmas and the New Year is now something we are beginning to talk about as having happened: 'How did you get over the Christmas and New Year?' are the opening words of many of our conversations today. But for us Christians we are still trying to get our heads around the fact that the Word became flesh and dwelt among us.

Maybe this little reflection will help us:

Father,
 Today our hearts are filled with joy as we recognise in Christ the revelation of your love.
 No eye can see his glory as our God, yet now he is seen as one like us.
 In the wonder of the incarnation the eternal Word has brought to the eyes of faith a new and radiant vision of your glory.

He is your Son before all ages, yet now he is born in time. He has come to lift up all things to himself, to restore unity to creation, and to lead us from exile into your heavenly kingdom.

In him we see our God made visible and so are caught up in love of the God we cannot see.

Today a new light had dawned upon the world: God has become one with humankind, and humankind has become one again with God.

Amen.
