Eucharistic Procession

As you will be aware, the Eucharistic Procession is a significant part of Cork's religious heritage. Cork's Eucharistic Procession is now in its 91st year. It commenced in 1926, when a group of businessmen in the city approached the then Bishop, Daniel Coholan, with a view to having a Eucharistic Procession in the city to mark the Feast of Corpus Christi. It was hoped that such an event might heal the division and bitterness in civil society at the time. Remarkably, since then, the Procession has not just survived but has become a feature of Catholic life in Cork.

Our faith is not something that we celebrate behind closed doors, it is something that is meant to affect our daily lives. Three years ago, while speaking at the Procession, Archbishop Brown said "that we worship Jesus in our churches for fifty one Sunday's of the year. On the Feast of Corpus Christi, we worship Him publicly in the streets. We should seek opportunities to celebrate our faith in public and give witness to the faith that has been given to us. The Eucharistic Procession is an ideal way of doing that." This year, I am delighted to announce that Most Rev Michael Neary, Archbishop of Tuam has agreed to preach the Homily.

John Buckley,

Bishop of Cork & Ross.

Once again this year it is planned to broadcast the entire Daunts Square Ceremony live on the Cork Community TV Channel 803-Virgin Media and on the Internet on www.corkcity.ie/tv from 2.45pm. We hope this live stream will facilitate the housebound, patients in hospitals and nursing homes and, also, Cork people across the world. The procession leaves the North Cathedral at 3.00pm and proceeds down Roman Street, Upper John Street, along Camden Quay St Patrick's Bridge and Patrick Street en-route to Daunt's Square.

Please note change of location/time.

To facilitate a smooth and organized joining of participants into the Procession from the Eastern Parishes, e.g. St Patrick's & Military Hill, St Joseph's & Our Lady Crowned, Mayfield, Glanmire & Glounthaune: We recommend each Parish group to assemble at Mangans Clock, Patrick Street (edge of pavement to the front of Laura Ashley's shop) at 2.45 pm sharp. We encourage each parish group to bring their own parish banner and, if possible, some spiritual Church banners.

Remembrance Mass at St Catherine's Cemetery, Kilcully Wednesday 25th May at 7.30 pm and Caherlag Graveyard Friday 27th May at 7.30 pm.

Concert/Workshop by Notre Dame University Folk Choir

The University of Notre Dame Folk Choir are visiting our Diocese on Thursday 26th May to give a concert/workshop at the Honan Chapel, UCC from 12.30pm to 2.00pm. To book places contact Pastoral Development Office 021 4537601 or by email karen.kent@corkandross.org

Thank you from the Pastoral Development Office – Fr Charlie Kiely wishes to thank you most sincerely for the collection taken up last weekend to support the work and administration of the Pastoral Development Office in the Diocese which amounted to 730.00. We look forward to meeting many of you over the coming year at our events, courses and conferences.

WORLD MEETING OF FAMILIES 2018

Next weekend 28th/29th of May a special collection will be taken up in all churches in our Diocese towards the cost of hosting this event in Ireland at the invitation of Pope Francis. It was in 1994 that Saint John Paul II called the first World Meeting of Families inviting families from across the globe to come together to share faith and to give them the opportunity to share the challenges and celebrate the blessings of family life in society today. Since its inception the Holy Father has attended every World Meeting of Families wherever it has been held and the Irish Bishops have extended an invitation to Pope Francis to come to Ireland to participate in this celebration.
