At the Cemetery Mass in Rathcooney last Tuesday evening this reflection was shared at part of the homily given. We would like to share it again in our Newsletter this weekend as a reminder that as with life so with death we can look at things very differently and it may make all the difference!

So even if we shed tears that they have gone, we can also choose to smile because they have lived. We can close our eyes and pray that they'll come back, or we can open our eyes and see all they have left us because they have lived. We can choose to have hearts that are empty because we can't see them, or we can be full of the love we shared with them. We can turn our backs on tomorrow and live yesterday, or we can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday. We can remember only that they have gone, or we can cherish their memory and let it live on. We can cry and close our minds, be empty and turn our backs, or we can do what they'd want us to do: smile, open our eyes, love and go on. The choice is ours!

Thank you to all who helped to organise the Cemetery Mass, all who participated and all who attended.

Ministers of the Word Rota is available in the sacristy.

2nd Collection today is the Quarterly Collection for Diocesan Needs.

Death: Sincere sympathy to the family, relatives and friends of Seán Garde, Upper Glanmire Bridge who died recently.

WORLD YOUTH DAY 2016 – CORK EVENT

The Diocese of Cork and Ross Pastoral Development Office is hosting an evening Vigil and Mass on Saturday 30th July from 8pm to Midnight to coincide with the World Youth Day in Krakow, Poland with Pope Francis.
