

GLANMIRE PARISH

6th November 2016

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

in the citadel of secular, atheistic power, the wife of the man who had run it all hoped that her husband was wrong. She hoped that there was another life, that that life was best represented by Jesus who died on the cross, and that the same Jesus might yet have mercy on her husband.

The Sign of the Cross

The funeral of former Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev who had been the president of the USSR for 18 years took place on 15 November 1982. What is little known is the silent protest carried out by Brezhnev's widow, Mrs Viktoria Brezhnev. She stood motionless by the coffin until seconds before it was closed. Then, just as the soldiers touched the lid, Brezhnev's wife performed an act of great courage and hope, a gesture that must surely rank as one of the most profound acts of civil disobedience ever committed: she reached down and made the sign of the cross on her husband's chest. There
