The management forgives you

J. Edwin Orr, a professor of Church history has described the great outpouring of the Holy Spirit during the Protestant Welsh Revivals of the nineteenth century, which resulted in real change of lifestyle. As people sought to be filled with the Spirit, they did all they could to confess their wrongdoings and to make restitution.

But this created serious problems for the shipyards along the coast of Wales. Over the years workers had stolen all kinds of things, from wheelbarrows to hammers.

However, as people sought to be right with God, they started to return what they had taken, with the result that soon the shipyards of Wales were overwhelmed with returned property. There were such huge piles of returned tools that several of the yards put up signs that read, "If you have been led by God to return what you have stolen, please know that the management forgives you and wishes you to keep what you have taken." In today's Gospel, Jesus challenges each one of us to revive our lives with a true spirit of repentance.

Thanks for your support

Fr John Newman and Fr Ray Riordan, priests of Glanmire Parish, sincerely thank everyone who supported them by paying into the Autumn Dues, Christmas
