Saints and the Endtime

St. Francis of Assisi, Saint of Nature, was hoeing his garden one day. A philosopher friend approached him and asked, "What would you do if you learned you would die before the sun sets?" St. Francis reflected for a moment and replied, "I would finish hoeing my garden. I would be faithful to what I am doing now." Dietrich Bonhoeffer was asked by critics, "Why do you expose yourself to all this danger? Jesus will return any day and all your work and suffering will be for nothing." Bonhoeffer said, "If Jesus returns tomorrow, then tomorrow I will rest from my labors, but today I have work to do. I must continue the struggle until I am finished." There is a beautiful Afro-American Spiritual song about waiting for the Lord's second coming doing one's duty faithfully:

There's a king and a captain high, and he's coming by and by

And he'll find me hoeing cotton when he comes.
 You can hear his legions charging, the regions of the sky
 And he'll find me hoeing cotton when he comes.
