On May Sunday, 1st May 1949 the Grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes at Glanmire was opened and blessed by the then Parish Priest, Very Rev Canon Gould. This year the Annual Procession will take place on Sunday 5th May leaving St Joseph's Church at 3 pm and all parishioners and those from neighbouring parishes are invited to attend. We would particularly welcome any person who participated in the first procession 70 years ago. The homily will be given by Fr Martin Barry, home from Kenya after fifty years' service there, and who walked in the first procession in 1949.

Rosary at the Grotto each evening for the month of May at 7.30 pm.

Annual Grotto collection will be taken up at all masses next weekend.

At the 12 Noon mass next Sunday some of the prayers and reading will be in Irish. Children from the First Holy Communion class in Gael Scoil Uí Drisceoil will attend.

On Sunday next we welcome Madrigal 75 Ireland to sing at the 12 Noon Mass.
