The Cost of Discipleship

Dietrich Bonhoeffer, a German Lutheran theologian, wrote a series of reflections on the Sermon on the Mount entitled, The Cost of Discipleship, in which he maintained that discipleship requires that we make a fundamental decision to follow Jesus and to accept the consequences of that decision. His own religious convictions led him to stand up to the tyranny of Nazi Germany and to participate in a plot to assassinate Adolf Hitler. The plot was uncovered, Bonhoeffer was apprehended, and the ultimate “cost” of discipleship was exacted of him: he was hanged by the Nazis on 9 April 1945. While discipleship might force some people to decide between life and death, few of us will be asked to pay that ultimate price. But today's Gospel challenges us to live in a certain way, imitating the prophetic vocation of Jesus.

Ordination Sunday

The new bishop of our diocese will be ordained in the North Cathedral on this Sunday 30th June. The 3.00 pm ceremony at the Cathedral will be televised live on the website of the diocese at www.cork.andross.org. Mass will be concelebrated by the Apostolic Nuncio, most of the bishops of Ireland, the priests of our diocese as well as priests from Fr Fintan's home diocese of Dublin. There will also be priests from abroad. Bishop John Buckley will be the principal consecrating Bishop at the Ordination Ceremony.

All the seating at the Cathedral is already assigned but Fr Fintan invites all the people from across the diocese wherever they may be to join with him in prayer on this Sunday afternoon.

Annual mass for the deceased will take place in Rathcooney Graveyard on Tuesday evening at 7.30 pm.

Death : Sincere sympathy to the family, relatives and friends of Richie O'Regan, Ballyphilip whose funeral took place on Monday last.
