The self-righteous admirer

Bishop Fulton Sheen once told a story about a trip he made by plane, and how one of the cabin crew, Jacinta, made a big fuss over him. "Do you want some more coffee, Your Excellency?" "Oh, my mother prays for you every day." "I must write to her and tell her about seeing you." On the same flight was a big Texan who had had a little too much to drink, started cursing, making passes at the female members of the cabin crew and creating a big ruckus. Finally, Jacinta, who had had enough, walked up to the Texan and said, "Sir, I'm afraid I'm going to have to ask you to be quiet. Bishop Sheen, the famous televangelist is flying with us." "Bishop Fulton J. Sheen is flying with us?" the Texan asked with surprise. Then he stumbled back to where Bishop Sheen was sitting and said, "Bishop Sheen, I'm so glad to meet you. I just want you to know how much your sermons have helped me to live an ideal Christian life!"
