Sign of the cross by Brezhnev's wife

The funeral of former Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev who had been the president of the USSR for 18 years took place in 1982. Brezhnev's widow, Mrs Natalia Brezhnev is remembered by many for something she did at the funeral. She stood motionless by the coffin until seconds before it was closed. Then, just as the soldiers touched the lid, Natalie performed an act of great courage and hope, a gesture that must surely rank as one of the most profound acts of civil disobedience ever committed: she reached down and made the sign of the cross on her husband's chest. There in the citadel of secular, atheistic power, the wife of the man who had run it all hoped that her husband was wrong. She hoped that there was another life, that that life was best represented by Jesus who died on the cross. She hoped that she would see the man she loved in the resurrection of the dead.

There will be a meeting for Ministers of the Eucharist on Monday 18th November at 8pm in the Parish Centre. All ministers are invited to attend.
