Wishing all our parishioners, their families and friends a happy and safe Christmas.

Thank you very much for your generous contributions this Christmas season.

Announcements

Following the government announcement last Tuesday, tighter Level 5 restrictions have been re-introduced in relation to public worship. The situation will be reviewed on 12 January 2021.

Mass

From the morning of 26 December churches in Glanmire Parish remain open for personal prayer but not for the celebration of Mass with a congregation (that is, with no public presence). The only exceptions to this are weddings (with 25 guests in attendance until 2 January and 6 guests thereafter) and funerals with 10 mourners in attendance. Masses will be streamed via the webcam in St Joseph's Church so that parishioners can pray and stay connected. No congregations are permitted in the churches for any other reason.

Personal Crib Visits

As churches may remain open for personal prayer it is possible for individuals and families to visit the Crib privately. This is something I encourage. Parents might consider bringing their children to the church, show them the crib, and explain its meaning. A short prayer – the Hail Mary - could be said as a family.

Funerals

Up to 10 mourners can attend a Funeral Mass.

Weddings

We do not have any weddings scheduled for the near future but for your information no more than 25 guests can attend the celebration of marriage in our churches until 2 January and only six guests thereafter.

Baptisms

Baptisms that are already scheduled must be postponed. Baptisms may not be held at this time. Please contact the priest if there is a great urgency.

First Friday Calls

It will not be possible to make First Friday calls to family homes. However, in the case of an emergency and with a request from the family, one of the priests will respond.
