Quote from: To Bless the Space Between Us: A Book of Blessings

The beauty of nature insists on taking its time.
Everything is prepared.
Nothing is rushed.
The rhythm of emergence is a gradual slow beat always inching its way forward; change remains faithful to itself until the new unfolds in the full confidence of true arrival.
Because nothing is abrupt, the beginning of spring nearly always catches us unawares.
It is there before we see it; and then we can look nowhere without seeing it.

– John O'Donohue

May Day Procession

The Procession from St Joseph's Church to the Grotto will take place on Sunday, 1st May. It will start at 3pm and finish at the Grotto at about 3.45pm. Rev Fr Damien O'Mahony, recently appointed parish priest in Glounthaune will preach the homily. Bishop Emeritus of Cork and Ross,

Dr John Buckley will give the Blessing. The event will conclude with Benediction. We look forward to a fine day and a big turn out. Sincere thanks to the Grotto Committee who have carried out trojan work around the Grotto and have it looking very well. A collection will be taken up on the First Sunday of May for the maintenance of the Grotto.

Spring Dues Envelopes

There are just a few areas left if someone would kindly volunteer to deliver the Spring Dues envelopes for; Lower Riverstown, Knocknahorgan, New Hermitage, Pouladown and Sallybrook East. Thank you.

Trócaire Lenten Campaign

If you haven't returned your Trócaire Box, you can still return it to the Office or the Church. If you did not use the Trócaire box throughout Lent, you can still make a donation by using one of the Trócaire envelopes at the Church doors and drop it in to the Church Collection.

Parish Assembly

A parish assembly serves for three years. This parish assembly was formed in 2019 and their term ended at Easter. A big thanks to this assembly who served during a unique and unusual time and supported the priests in guiding this parish safely through the pandemic. A new assembly has been formed and the process of introduction and training will begin in the near future. Thank you for participating in the assembly and extending a warm welcome to the new members. We are looking forward to working together as we look to and plan for the future for our parish.
