A Brother

In the lovely book, Chicken Soup for the Soul, there's a story about a man who came out of his office one Christmas morning and found a little boy from a nearby estate looking with great admiration at the man's new vehicle. The little boy asked, "Does this car belong to you?" And the man said, "Yes. In fact, my brother gave it to me for Christmas. I've just gotten it." With that, the little boy's eyes widened. He said, "You mean to say that somebody gave it to you? And you didn't have to pay anything for it?" And the man said, "That's right. My brother gave it to me as a gift." With that the little boy let out a long sigh and said, "Boy, I would really like..." And the man fully expected the boy to say, "I would like to have a brother like that, who would give me such a beautiful car," but instead the man was amazed when the little boy said, "Boy! I would like to be that kind of brother. I wish I could give that kind of car to my little brother."

Connect - Faith Gathering for Young People (18 - 35 years)

On Sunday 22nd May, young people from all over the Diocese of Cork and Ross will join with Bishop Fintan for a special event called CONNECT. It will take place in the Student Centre in UCC from 2.30pm. The event promises to be a wonderful gathering of prayer, music, food, testimonies and sharing. To register for this event simply visit www.corkandross.org

Painting the Church

Liam Cotter & Sons, Painters, have completed the gallery section of the Church. This week they begin to paint the side walls. The congregation will stay in the section that has been completed at the back. We haven't moved out of the church because we do not want to lose the web-cam link for people joining us from home.

Fundraising for the Painting

This weekend we begin a second collection to pay for the painting of the church and presbytery. We ask for your generosity. Also, envelopes have been prepared for those who wish to make a donation for the work. These envelopes are in the church and office. Please make a donation.

So that all may be heard

During this month of May, the Diocese of Cork and Ross is opening up ways for people to have a say and to listen and have an input into next year's Synod meeting in Rome. The easiest way to find out more is to go to synod.corkandross.org.
