A New Advocate

When the heartbroken Nathaniel Hawthorne went home to tell his wife that he had been a failure and had been fired from his job in a customhouse, she surprised him with an exclamation of joy. "Now," she said triumphantly, "you can write your book!" "Yes," replied Nathaniel, "and what shall we live on while I am writing it?" To his amazement, she opened a drawer and pulled out a substantial sum of money. "Where on earth did you get that?" he exclaimed. "I have always known you were a man of genius," she told him. "I knew that someday you would write a masterpiece. So every week out of the housekeeping money you gave me I saved a little. So here is enough to last us a whole year!" From her confidence and encouragement came one of the greatest novels of United States literature, The Scarlet Letter.

Painting the Church

The painting of the inside of the church is ongoing. The wall on the right side (looking from main door) is now painted. A special feature of that side is the Confessional Box which is painted in a rich teak colour to highlight its importance in the church. Next week, the wall on the left side will be painted. LED lighting will be installed in the ceiling. This will not stain the ceiling and will be cheaper to run than the existing lighting.

Fundraising for the Painting

Last weekend, we began a second collection to pay for the painting of the church. Thanks for your contributions. This collection will continue until we have paid for the work. Many people have commented positively about the painting. We ask for your generosity. Also, Donation Envelopes for the painting are available in the Office and Church. Please take an envelope and make a donation for the Church painting as a family or a community Group.

So that all may be heard

During this month of May, the Diocese of Cork and Ross is opening up ways for people to have a say and to listen and have an input into next year's Synod meeting in Rome. The easiest way to find out more is to go to synod.corkandross.org.
