A Greater Work of Art

One of the seminarians who gives tours of St. Peter's Basilica in Rome told me of an interesting incident. He was leading a group of Japanese tourists who knew absolutely nothing of our Faith. With particular care he explained the great masterpieces of art, sculpture and architecture. He finally concluded at the Blessed Sacrament Chapel trying his best to explain quickly what it was. As the group dispersed, an elderly man, who had been particularly attentive stayed behind, and said, "Pardon me. Would you explain again this 'Blessed Sacrament?'" Our student did, after which the man exclaimed, "Ah, if this is so, what is in this chapel is a greater work of art than anything else in this basilica."

Face Coverings in Church

Due to an increase in Covid infections with associated risks to older and vulnerable people, we strongly recommend that face coverings be worn in the Church. Please, continue to sanitise your hands on entering and leaving the church and exercise caution at all times.

Retreat for Parish Pastoral Assembly

A short retreat for the new Assembly was held in Ennismore Retreat Centre this Saturday, 18 June. The event was led by Fr Ben Hegarty, a member of the Dominican community at Ennismore. It was a joyful and prayerful occasion. Please keep the new Assembly in your prayers. The next meeting of the Parish Assembly will take place on Wednesday 22 June in the Parish Centre at 8pm. An item on the agenda will be Mass in Rathcooney Cemetery on the first Monday in July at 7.30pm.

Lay Led Liturgy

The Lay Liturgy Leaders will continue to lead prayer in St Joseph's Church on Wednesday mornings at 10am throughout the Summer period. Mass will be offered on Mon-Tues and Thurs-Fri. The Lay Liturgy team will lead prayer in St Michael's church in the Autumn.

Second Collection

The Second Collection this weekend is for Peter's Pence, the proceeds of which are used by Pope Francis for philanthropic works throughout the world and for administrative costs of the Vatican state.

Restructure Parish Communities

Next Sunday, priests and four members of the laity of Glanmire parish will go to Rochestown Park Hotel with Bishop of Cork and Ross, Fintan Gavin, and other members of the Diocese, to discuss how we can best restructure our parish communities. Following this meeting, Bishop will meet with priests in the early weeks of July to make clerical changes. These new appointments will then be taken up at the beginning of September. This is a stressful time for priests and keep them in your prayer.

Church Painting

The painting of St Joseph's Church - inside and outside - is now complete. The presbytery has also been freshly painted. The work was carried out by Liam Cotter Decorators Ltd, a local company. The cost of the painting is €73,500 in total: the presbytery €8,500; Church (outside) €25,000; Church (inside) €38,000. These figures are inclusive of VAT. Work on the lights is still ongoing. LED lights have been installed throughout the church. Ventilation of the church has been greatly enhanced by the instillation of twenty-two air vents. We rely on your donations and contributions to pay for these works.

On-line Summer School

The Priory Institute will host an online Summer School in August. It's called "Mysticism in an Age of Calamity: Meister Eckhart, John Tauler and Henry Suso". Find out more and register on prioryinstitute.com

No Corpus Christi Procession

Due to the uncertainty around Covid, it was not possible to organize a Cork Eucharistic Procession this year. Next year (2023), it's hoped to have a public procession once again in Cork.

Mayfield Celebrate

Congratulations to Our Lady Crowned Parish, Mayfield Upper, which celebrated 60 years as a parish this June. The church was opened in 1962. Glanmire Parish often uses Our Lady Crowned Church to accommodate the large number of children from Glanmire making Communion and Confirmation. We're grateful for the hospitality.
