Courage

In the 1920s, an English adventurer named Mallory led an expedition to conquer Mount Everest. His first, second, and even his third attempt with an experienced team met with failure. Upon his return to England, the few who had survived held a banquet to salute Mallory and those who had perished. As he stood up to speak, Mallory looked around at pictures of himself and those who had died. Then he turned his back on the crowd and faced a large picture of Mount Everest looming large like an unbeatable giant. With tears streaming down his face, he spoke to the mountain on behalf of his dead friends: "I speak to you Mount Everest, in the name of all brave men living, and those yet unborn. Mount Everest, you defeated us once, you defeated us twice; you defeated us three times. But Mount Everest, we shall someday defeat you, because you can't get any bigger, but we can."

The Assumption Feast

Mass for the Feast of the Assumption is at 10am in St Joseph's Church and 11am in St Michael's Church. An evening mass at 7pm will be offered in St Joseph's Church, Little Island.

Face Coverings in Church

Due to the widespread presence of Covid infections in our society, we strongly recommend that face coverings be worn in the Church at all times. Many older and vulnerable people come to the church and it's important that they be safe. Please, continue to sanitise your hands on entering and leaving the church.

New Families of Parishes

Bishop Gavin has restructured the Diocese into sixteen groups of parishes, called "families of parishes." The number of parishes in each "family" will vary but usually will contain four to six parishes. With regard to this area, Glanmire is linked with Glounthaune, Watergrasshill and Carraig na bhFear. Fr John Newman is transferred from Glanmire to Bandon and Fr Donal Cotter is going from Watergrasshill to Dennehy's Cross. The four parishes will have five priests, four co-PPs and a curate. Fr Pat Fogarty will live in Glanmire; Fr Damien O'Mahony will live in Glounthaune; Fr Christy Fitzgerald will live in Watergrasshill; Fr Martin Keohane will live in Carraig na bhFear; and Fr Pat Nugent will continue to live in the Presbytery in Glanmire. Fr Christy Fitzgerald is the "moderator". It will be his responsibility to make sure the "Family of Parishes" run smoothly. Of course, it will take quite a while for this new system to be established. Let's hope and pray that all goes well.

Fr John and Fr Pat

In the recent clerical appointments, Fr John Newman has been moved from Glanmire to the Bandon Family of Parishes. Fr John was appointed PP Glanmire in 2012 and has been here for the past ten years. We wish him well in his new role which he takes up on 10th September. Fr Pat Fogarty, PP Carrigaline, has been transferred to the Glanmire Family of Parishes. He is a native of North Tipperary and still an avid supporter of his native county. Fr Pat is a keen gardener and a fine golfer. He was ordained a priest in Glanmire on 26 September 1987 and it's good to be able to welcome him to the parish that ordained him.

Lay Led Liturgy

The Lay Liturgy Leaders will continue to lead prayer in St Joseph's Church on Wednesday mornings at 10am. The Lay Liturgy team hope to lead prayer in St Michael's church in the Autumn. We appreciate this prayer initiative and thank the eight lay leaders who provide this service.

Speedy Recovery

We wish a speedy and full recovery to Peter Falvey who is in the Cork University Hospital at present. Peter has been deeply involved in the Community and has served as Chairman of our Parish Assembly for two terms.

Legion of Mary

A mass to mark the 100 anniversary of the founding of the Legion of Mary will be held in St Joseph's Springhill at 10am on Thursday 18 August. It will celebrate the long tradition of prayer and apostolic work for which the Legion is proudly famous.

2nd Collection today is for the Church Painting Fund. Thank you for your support.
