The narrow gate

Someone once said to Paderewski, the great pianist, "Sir, you are a genius." He replied, "Madam, before I was a genius, I was a drudge." He continued: "If I missed practice one day, I noticed it; if I missed practice two days, the critics noticed it; if I missed three days, my family noticed it; if I missed four days, my audience noticed it. It is also reported that after one of Fritz Kreisler's concerts a young woman said to him, "I would give my life to be able to play like that." He replied, "That's what I gave."

Lay Liturgy Group

Meeting of the Group will be held in the Parish Centre at 7.30pm this Wednesday at 7.30pm. We are mindful that Peter Falvey, a member of the group, is still ill in the CUH and we keep him in our prayers for a speedy recovery.

Face Coverings in Church

Due to the widespread presence of Covid infections in our society, we strongly recommend that face coverings be worn in the Church at all times. Many older and vulnerable people come to the church and it's important that they be safe. Please, continue to sanitise your hands on entering and leaving the church.

Two vacancies in the Diocese

Following on from the recent publication of Bishop Fintan's pastoral letter Putting out into Deep Waters and the reconfiguration of the parishes of the diocese into families of parishes, two full-time vacancies arise for people to work in the diocese. These posts are for a "Parish Life Co-ordinator" and a "Faith Development Co-Ordinator." Full details are available on the Diocesan website: corkandross.org.

Co-PP of Glanmire Fr Pat Fogarty

Fr Pat Fogarty, the newly appointed co-PP of Glanmire and the local family of parishes (Glanmire, Glounthaune, Watergrasshill, Carraig na bhFear) will take up his appointment on Saturday, 10 September. We wish him a warm welcome and a long and happy time in the Glanmire area. Fr Pat is coming from Carrigaline Parish where he has worked since July 2013. Fr John Newman takes up his appointment in the Bandon family of parishes at the same time.
