Season of Creation

The Season of Creation is the annual celebration of prayer and action, which is celebrated throughout the Christian world, for our Common Home.

Pope Francis established the 1st September as a World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation.

This year the Season of Creation began on the 1st September and ends on the Feast of St Francis of Assisi, who is the patron saint of ecology, on the 4th October.

We are reminded in the Acts of the Apostles, Acts 17:28, that "It is in God's world we live and move and have our being."

This same theme is captured very well in Joseph Mary Plunkett's poem -

I See his Blood upon the Rose - reminding us that God's presence is in the whole of creation.

*I see his blood upon the rose,
And in the stars, the glory of his eyes.
His body gleams amid eternal snows,
His tears from the skies.
I see his face in every flower.
The thunder and the singing of the birds*

*Are but his voice.
And carven by his power, rocks are his written words.
All pathways by his feet are worn,
his strong heart stirs the ever-beating sea.
His crown of thorns is twined with every thorn
His cross is every tree.*

Altar Servers

New Altar Servers (from 3rd to 6th Class in Primary School) are invited to join existing volunteers from October onwards. Training will be provided and a rota will be drawn up in advance. Please text Mirinda O'Keeffe on 087 2262044 if interested.

The Parish Assembly would like to invite parishioners to a Farewell / Thank you evening for Fr John Newman following his move to the Bandon family of parishes. After 10 years of committed and dedicated service in Glanmire Parish, this event will take place in the Parish Centre at 7.30pm on Friday, 7th October. A Prayer Service with music will be followed by Light Refreshments In advance of this event, envelopes (marked for Fr Newman) will be available in the Church at Masses every weekend for any parishioners who may wish to make a contribution for him. These will be collected with the usual collections at Mass and ultimately combined and presented to Fr Newman on 7th October. Alternatively, contributions can be handed into the Parish Office on Tues, Wed or Thurs 10 -1pm.

On behalf of all parishioners, the Parish Assembly would like to acknowledge and sincerely thank Fr Newman for his kind and unwavering service to Glanmire Parish and would also like to extend a warm welcome to Fr Pat Fogarty as he joins us from Carrigaline.
