Third Sunday of Advent

Reader: Last Sunday, we lit the candle of peace. We light it and the candle of hope again as we remember that Christ, who was born in Bethlehem, will come again to judge the world and bring it everlasting peace.

(The candles of hope and peace are lit).

Priest: The third candle of Advent is the candle of Joy. We light the candle of Joy to remind us that when Jesus is born in us, we have joy, and that through him, there will be everlasting joy on earth.

(The candle of Joy is lit).

All: Let us pray: Thank you, God, for the joy you give us. We ask that as we wait for all your promises to come true and for Christ to come again, that you would remain present with us. Help us today and every day to worship you, to hear your word and to do your will by sharing your joy with each other. We ask it in the name of the one who was born in Bethlehem. Amen.
