Prayer and Meditation

When we pray, we can also put ourselves in a space where we hear God speaking through our conscience through the intercession of Jesus. St John Paul II said that it is through prayer that Jesus leads us to his Father. It is in prayer that the Holy Spirit transforms our lives. It is in prayer that we come to know God to detect his presence in our souls, to hear his voice speaking through our consciences.

Have you ever noticed when you are praying, that after a while when you have found peace, calmness and quietness, that a thought comes to you that never came to you before, a thought that gives you a new way, a better way of dealing with a problem, a thought that God has placed there. A thought that you know you would have never formulated yourself. This is God speaking to you through your conscience. This happens in different ways for different people. For some it happens when they are saying the rosary, for others, it happens during Adoration, for others it happens when they do Lectio Divina and for others when they engage in Christian Meditation. Some are very blessed that it happens for them frequently. However, if your mind is too busy you will not hear it or experience it.

So today, give thanks to Jesus for all he has done, is doing and will continue to do for us in our lives if we listen to his voice.

St Joseph's Junior Group.

With Christmas approaching many preparations are taking place. With this in mind Chris and the team from St Joseph's Junior Group (Children's Church Choir) are getting together with children to form a group to sing on Christmas Eve at the 4 pm Family Mass in St Joseph's Church. This has been requested by Fr Pat Fogarty. We have not been together since pre-Covid so we need to recruit again. Any of our previous members are welcome to return. We are looking for children from 2nd class to 6th class from any of the schools in the area. Our first night will be Monday 28th November 6.30pm – 7.30 pm. Please come and join us and have some fun while fully participating in the first Family Christmas Mass in our parish. Contact Ursula at 087 4195642.
