Appointment of Deacon David Lane

Bishop Fintan Gavin has appointed Deacon David Lane to the Family of Parishes at Carraig na bhFear, Glanmire, Glounthaune and Watergrasshill. David will be based in Glanmire.

We extend a very warm welcome to David and wish him well in his appointment.

St Joseph's Church Choir's

Choir practice has resumed, new members are welcome to join contact Margaret Tobin 086 85232907.

The Folk Group has also resumed and new members are welcome to join.

Last week there was a reading from the Prophet Jeremiah and in many ways it represents my journey of faith over many years

You have seduced me Lord and I have let myself be seduced .....there seems to be a fire burning in my heart, imprisoned in my bones. The effort to restrain it wearied me.....and so I have relented.

My name is David Lane and I have been appointed as your Deacon to this Family of Parishes in recent weeks.

My mother and father were blessed with nine children in all, six girls and three boys. I am the middle child with four older siblings and four younger. All through my life the importance of family and how it has influenced me is central to my life story. And so that story continued in my early adult life when I started a family of my own. I married my beautiful wife Siobhan over twenty five years ago and we have been blessed with three gorgeous children, Andrew, Caitriona and Michael. As with any family we struggle to do the best we can for our children and over the years we have had our highs and lows, our joys and sorrows.

I work every day as head of Social Inclusion Services in the HSE (these services support people in addiction, people who are homeless, people who are refugees and asylum seekers including the people who have arrived into our country from Ukraine, the LGBTI community and the Travelling community).

I look forward to working with you in the coming years and I will pray for you every day. Please hold me in your prayers too.
