REMEMBRANCE

As we remember those we have loved and lost this November I pray that you will read the following words, cling to them, and let them sink deeply into your heart.

What God creates God loves, and what God loves God loves forever.

Let them echo through this day and carry you into the next. They speak a truth about the people who have gone before us and about you. If there is anything that overcomes and sees us through death it is love "love is stronger than death."

Pope Francis wrote a beautiful letter in 2018 that speaks powerfully about the goodness that is all around us but at times we just don't recognise. He writes...

I like to contemplate the holiness present in the patience of God's people: in those parents who raise their children with immense love, in those men and women who work hard to support their families, in the sick, in elderly religious who never lose their smile. In their daily perseverance I see the holiness of the Church militant. Very often it is a holiness found in our next-door neighbours, those who, living in our midst, reflect God's presence. God Bless you all.
