70th Anniversary of the Legion of Mary in Glanmire

The works of the Legion of Mary are categorised into what it calls the 3C's; Conversion, Conservation and Consolation.

Conversion works of the Legion are apostolic works which aim to bring a soul a step closer to Jesus Christ, the works of conversion begin by 'baby steps' very gradually introducing the Catholic faith to others. The Legion of Mary's favourite means of evangelization is door to door visitation. Included in the works of conversion are Peregrinatio Pro Christo, Incolae Mariae & Exploratio Dominicalis. Peregrinatio Pro Christo means travelling for Christ for usually no more than two weeks doing house-to-house visitation. Incolae Mariae is similar but of a longer duration perhaps up to a year and Exploratio Dominicalis also similar but for a shorter period of 1 to 3 days - these are missionary activities where a team of Legionaries, in a distant place, would evangelize an area deemed to have a need of God and the Church. All of this would take place in consultation with the Parish Priest of the target parish.

Conservation: The works of Conservation pertain to efforts of strengthening the Catholic faith among the baptized Catholics. Since the Legion is an extension of the priest, under works of 'conservation' are parish-based ministries such as the Holy Hour or adoration program, devotions such as First Friday and First Saturday, Enthronement of the Sacred Heart and the Immaculate Heart of Mary in homes, the Family Rosary and the Pilgrim Virgin.

Consolation: Works of Consolation are those apostolic activities that bring comfort, solace and inner peace to God's people. These include visitation of institutions such as the prison, hospital and convalescent, nursing or retirement homes. In these Apostolates, the main focus is to bring the love and mercy of Jesus to the suffering. During these visitations, the Legion member also seeks out those in need of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick and brings it to the attention of the priest.

I would also like to encourage you to consider becoming a member, the meetings are pleasant, interesting and quite short and take place in the pastoral room at 10.30 am every Wednesday. All are welcome!
