Reflection – Second Sunday of Easter – (6-7 April 2024)

Today on the Sunday of Divine Mercy, many of us will experience a sense of peace and forgiveness when we attend Divine Mercy Devotions at 3pm.

I have had the privilege of visiting the Sanctuary of the Divine Mercy in Lagiewnicki in the suburb of Krakow in Poland four times and I am always surprised by this sense of peace, forgiveness and healing when you witness the nuns reciting the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy at 3pm in the Convent chapel.

On this Sunday of Divine Mercy, feel this sense of peace, feel being in the presence of the Holy Spirit like the Early Christians when they acted on the teaching of St John on the Holy Trinity and also when they showed love for neighbour in a practical way by treating everybody fairly and equally. Give thanks to Sr. Faustyna who had a vision of the Risen Lord with two shafts of light, red and white, streaming from his heart as the fount of Mercy which has brought many people back or closer to the Risen Lord.

Believe even though you have not seen. If we believe and trust in God's forgiveness, mercy and healing, we will be freed from the death of sin.

SPRING DUES

Sincere thanks to all who already distributed Spring Dues envelopes. We are requesting for a volunteer to deliver the Spring Dues envelopes for; Crestfied, Glashaboy Woods, Killydonoghue, Knocknahorgan, New Hermitage, Piercetown and Sallybrook East They are available from the sacristy after mass and from the office Tues, Wed & Thurs. Your help is much appreciated.
