Charismatic Forum

The weekend of 19-21 April, the 2nd Polish-Irish Charismatic Forum took place in the parish of St. Joseph's in Cork, Glanmire, with special guests from Poland- Fr Joseph Witko and Sylwia, and Witek Wilk. The Forum was organised by the Community of the Risen Christ - Galilee, which operates under auspices of the Polish Chaplaincy in Cork. During the Forum, Poles and Irish people participated, as they did last year, in talks, music and worship sessions, adoration of the Most Holy Sacrament and the Holy Mass. Present at the Forum was Bishop Fintan Gavin, who presided over Saturday's Mass and gave a heart-warming homily to all Forum participants and guests. Bishop Fintan also took part in an informal meeting that followed with special guests from Poland, Galilee community and Father Pat Fogarty Co-PP. This was an opportunity to foster closer Polish-Irish links and friendship and discuss the new evangelisation in Poland and Ireland. Locally-based "ThirdDayRevolution" choir led music and worship sessions at the Forum adding a special touch to this beautiful Holy Spirit-filled weekend.

For all of the Forum participants, it was a beautiful time of joy, unity and an encounter with the power and love of the living God. We trust the 2nd Charismatic Forum will bear fruit and bless all of its participants and organisers for many days to come.
