GLANMIRE PARISH WHAT IS THE PARISH ASSEMBLY ABOUT?

A Parish Assembly is a consultative body working together to advance the mission of Christ within the parish. It's a leadership group that aims to build a vibrant Christian Community, fostering faith, worship and service. The Assembly also plays a role in supporting community worship and planning liturgical services. As the current Assembly is coming to the end of its term, we are inviting you to participate in the nomination of the new Parish Assembly.

CHOOSING OUR ASSEMBLY MEMBERS:

- Each Parishioner is invited to nominate 3 people
- You can nominate yourself or a family member.

Please complete the form and return to the Priest's house or Parish office on or before the 15th June 2025. If you require any further information please contact Fr Fogarty or Fr Nugent.

Communion

Congratulations to the pupils of St Michael's Upper Glanmire and & Gael Scoil Uí Drisceoil who received their First Holy Communion

On Saturday, June 7th, on the eve of Pentecost, you are invited to the Eucharist at 6:00 PM, and after its conclusion, to a vigil until midnight. This is a special time of united prayer for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. On this particular evening, we will gather, just like the disciples in the Upper Room, 50 days after the Resurrection of Christ, to experience the power of the Holy Spirit, who sends us to carry the Gospel to the whole world. We cordially invite and encourage participation! All welcome. Due to the vigil on the eve of the Pentecost, there will be no worship after the evening mass on the second Saturday of the month.
