Holy Trinity Sunday

The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is difficult to explain and understand. Even the brilliant philosopher St Augustine had problems explaining it.

There is a very old and much-repeated story about St Augustine, one of the intellectual giants of the Church. He was walking by the seashore one day, attempting to conceive of an intelligent explanation for the Mystery of the Holy Trinity. As he walked along the beach, he saw a small boy pouring seawater from a shell into a small hole in the sand. 'What are you doing my child?' asked St Augustine. 'I am emptying the sea into this hole' the boy answered with an innocent smile. 'But that is impossible, my dear child,' said St Augustine. The boy stood up, looked straight into the eyes of St. Augustine and replied, 'What you are trying to do - comprehend the immensity of God with your small head – is even more impossible.' Then he vanished. The child was an angel sent by God to teach St. Augustine a lesson.

An invitation to the 99th Cork Eucharistic Procession:

Please join us for the 99th Eucharistic Procession which takes place on Sunday, June 22nd leaving the Cathedral of St. Mary and St. Anne at 3.00pm. It would be great to continue the tradition of parishioners from parishes throughout the city and beyond to walk in the procession. Parking is available in the grounds of St. Anthony's Convent, St. Mary's Road (across from the Cathedral). This year to accommodate the growing large numbers it was decided to take the final prayer and Benediction outside onto a specially constructed platform down at the end of Grand Parade near the National Monument. For more details see www.corkandross.org

Mass will be celebrated in St Joseph's Cemetery, Little Island on Friday 27th June at 7.30pm. Please bring your own chair as seating will not be provided. In the event of bad weather, the Mass will be celebrated in nearby St Joseph's Church. Car Parking is available in the grounds of St Joseph's Church.

A reminder to please complete the form for the Parish Assembly and return to the Priest's house or Parish office on or before the 15th June 2025. If you require any further information please contact Fr Fogarty or Fr Nugent.
